

BASE TITANIUM Base Titanium's contributions in Kenya

One-time contributions

Building the mine

Between 2012-2014, Base's capital investment totalled US$310m to develop the mine and infrastructure; supporting 8,255 one-year jobs and generating a total of nearly $8m in taxes.

$310m Base's total capital investment (Direct)

Supports $190m sales by Kenyan businesses (direct, indirect, & induced economic output)

Total capital expenditure

Contributions from projected FY16 operations

Supporting 3,432 jobs

Direct employment

Building a community

$9m Base's past and planned expenditures through FY16

Building public funds

Projected $19.2m Kenyan taxes in FY16

Building a supply chain

Base supports Kenyan businesses through purchases of goods and services

Building the Kenyan mining sector

Base's FY16 production will put Kenya in the top 10 ranking for titanium dioxide mineral producing countries

Building local wealth

* Unless otherwise stated, dollar amounts are shown in 2014 US$; figures may not appear to sum due to rounding.
Source: Base Titanium's total economic and tax contributions in Kenya. February 2015. EY US Quantitative Economics and Statistics (QUEST); Created by Ernst & Young LLP.